As a fellow Air Force veteran, Veterans Day holds a special place in my heart. It's a time to reflect on the oath we took when we raised our right hands, the sacrifices made not only by those who served but also by the families who stood beside us, and the friendships and bonds that continue long after our time in uniform. We may have served in different branches, wore different uniforms, and experienced different eras, but we share a common bond built on service, commitment, and a willingness to put something greater than ourselves first.

As we honor all who have worn the uniform, let's also remember those who never made it home and those who continue to face challenges long after their military service has ended. Our responsibility to one another doesn't end when we take off the uniform. As members of The American Legion, we have an opportunity to continue serving by supporting our fellow veterans, strengthening our communities, and making sure no veteran feels forgotten or alone.

With that in mind, we will be holding a "Buddy Check" on Sunday, November 8, at 10:00 AM in support of Be the One. This is an opportunity to reach out to fellow veterans and members of our Post, check in on how they're doing, and remind them that someone cares. With the holidays approaching, we know this time of year can bring added stress, loneliness, and challenges for some. A simple phone call, a conversation, or taking the time to listen can make a meaningful difference. I encourage you to join me in this important effort. Sometimes, simply asking "How are you doing?" and truly listening to the answer can mean more than we realize.

From one veteran to another, thank you for your service, your sacrifice, and the continued difference you make in the lives of others. It was an honor to serve our country, and it remains an honor to serve alongside you today. Let's continue to look out for one another—not just on Veterans Day, but every day.

Lastly, Happy 251st Birthday to the United States Marine Corps! To our Marine veterans and those still serving, Semper Fi, and thank you for your service.

For God and Country,
Commander "Bear"

American Legion Unit 91 Auxiliary

November is a month to pause and say thank you.

On November 11, we gather as a community that knows what service means. Many of you wore the uniform while many of you waited at home, kept the family running, and welcomed someone back. Veterans Day belongs to all of you.

To our veterans: Thank you for your service and all that you keep doing after, within Post 91 and in this community.

To our veteran's families and friends: Thank you for standing behind them. Your service rarely gets a ribbon, but we see it.

Honor a Vet is returning for the whole month of November. Honor your veteran(s) with a branch-specific emblem that will be hung around the Post for all to see. They will be one for $3 or two for $5, and a station will be set up in the Post to get them during operating hours.

This month, we're also thankful for the members who give their time to Post 91. Thank you for your time, effort, and support. It does not go unnoticed.

Valerie Goodwin
Madam President, AUX

Commander of the Sons of the American Legion

Commander Jason Stephens

As we enter November and prepare to celebrate Veterans Day, I want to take a moment to reflect on what it truly means to be a Son of the American Legion.

Each of us became eligible for this organization because of someone who served our great nation. For many of us, it was our father or grandfather. Someone who put on the uniform, answered the call to serve, and made sacrifices so that we could enjoy the freedoms we have today.

For me it was my grandfather, Ralph Stephens USMC WWII.

Their service is our legacy, and carrying that legacy forward is our responsibility.

Every time we walk through the doors of Post 91, attend a meeting, volunteer at an event, raise money for a worthy cause, or simply share a conversation with a veteran at the bar (John Archuleta), we are doing something bigger than ourselves.

We are honoring them.

We honor our fathers, our grandfathers, and every man and woman who has worn the uniform. Some are still with us, sharing their stories and experiences. Others have passed on, leaving us with memories, traditions, and a legacy worth preserving. Being a Son of the American Legion is about more than carrying a membership card. It's about showing up, giving back, and making sure the sacrifices of those who came before us are never forgotten.

This Veterans Day, I encourage every member of Squadron 91 to take a moment to thank a veteran, listen to their story, and remember the person whose service gave you the privilege of being part of this great organization. We are Sons because they served. We serve because we remember.

Happy Veterans Day to all who have served our great nation. Thank you for your service, your sacrifices, and the legacy you have entrusted to us.

Yeah Buddy!!!

Jason Stephens, Squadron 91 Commander
